LIFE.

BY M. LOUIS GOLDSMITH.

Life is but a troubled stream,
Flowing on as in a dream—
Wider, deeper growing—
Bearing freight for good or ill,
Hast'ning on some gulf to fill,
Into the grave flowing.

Down the stream our barks are borne,
Like some water-lily torn
From its quiet mooring;
Now we, at a tearful rate,
Glide on helpless to our fate,
Dire suspense enduring.

Past a whirlpool now we glide;
Breakers now on either side
Threaten to destroy us.
Far away, brilliant light
Shines across the murky night,
Seeking to decoy us.

There, along the treacherous tide,
Shipwrecks loom up far and wide,
At the shrine of pleasure
Stranded; barks there strayed away,
And within the rocky bay
Cast away their treasure.

Sail we on! Our craft, though weak,
Came thus far without a leak;
Storms and wave's commotion
Hastened rather than delayed
The voyage, and we've almost made
Eternity's dark ocean.

Pause we here—but no! the tide
Sweeps us onward—we abide—
Not on earth or ocean—
Rest unfound eludes our clasp,
Till we, at our latest gasp,
Yield to Death's dire potion!

AN INFERNAL MACHINE.

Several years ago, a friend of mine took a book store in B———street, Cincinnati.—Things went on very well for a time; but like all the rest of mankind, he had several "well wishers," as he expressed it, who were constantly watching for an opportunity to do him harm.

One day, the Adams' Express Company placed a box in front of his door; and without looking at the inscription he signed the ticket, and the man drove off. A few moments later he went out, and was surprised to see "This side up with extreme care!" marked on the upper surface. Now, this caution together with the singular appearance of the box, caused our friend to be a little suspicious, for it was shortly after Allison and his wife were killed by the explosion of an infernal machine.

He had it carefully carried into the store, and then all the clerks gathered around it to see the wonderful box. It was then carefully placed behind the counter, where it remained for a whole week. At the end of that time he got tired of keeping company with such a dangerous companion, and he consulted a few persons (among whom were myself,) what he should do with it. After a little talk, he resolved to sink the box in the cistern for three days, after which time it was to be opened,

It was placed in the water accordingly.—We all laughed heartily over the affair, for every one except our friend, considered it an immense joke, for it had been published a few days previous that a woman had received a box and thinking it to be an infernal machine, she sunk it in the cistern. When her husband came home at night, he inquired about his ten dollar box of cigars that he had sent home during the day! No doubt they were well soaked!

In the anticipation of having a very grand time, Jake Kile published it in the papers.

The appointed day came, and with it came some two hundred terrified people. The box was taken out of the cistern, and laid upon the counter. Some ladies began to shed tears, and one I believe fainted. Every body present was fearful that the box was closed so tightly that the water had not entered it. However, our friend advanced and kicked the box. All shuddered. No explosion, and he kicked again with the same result. Then he took a small hatchet and carefully pried the lid open. He lifted the top carefully, but hesitated about removing the cloth that was spread over something within. At length, however, it was taken off! All pressed eagerly forward to see the wonderful infernal machine.

Our friend clasped his hands; the clerks bursted; the people clapped their hands, and shouted: "Sold! sold! sold!"

I pushed forward and peeped into the box—There lay a huge doll baby dressed in a New York paper!

A lady in an omnibus at Washington espied the great unfinished dome of the capitol, (which certainly looks very little like a dome at present,) and said innocently—

"I suppose those are the gas works?"

"Yes madam, for the nation," was the reply of a fellow passenger.

BILL PAID.

Bill met Katy in the lane—
A wink,
Or blink,
I think
She winked again!

He put his arm around her waist—
A pout!
No doubt,
Put out,
At such good taste.

Her little hand caught his so quick—
A scratch!
He'll catch
His match,
And lose the trick.

Then, with her other hand, she gave'—
A cuff!
That's rough
Enough,
And showed her brave.

She said: "I won't!" then held so still—
A kiss!
Ah! this!
Sweet bliss
Paid every ill—paid Bill.

A PRINTER ON A TRAMP.

A Dutchman sitting at the door of his tavern in the Far West, is approached by a tall thin Yankey, who is emigrating westward on foot with a bundle on a cane over his shoulder.

"Vell Mishter Valking Shtick, vat you vant?"

"Rest and refreshment," replied the printer.

"Supper and lochin, I reckon?"

"Yes."

"Pe you a Yanky petlar, mit chewelry in pack, to shteal de gal?"

"No sir, I am no Yankee peddler."

"A singin' mashter, too lazy to work?"

"No sir."

"A shenteel shoemaker, vat loves to measure te gal's foots unt angles petter tan to make te shoes?"

"No sir, or I should certainly have mended my own shoes."

"A book agent what bodders de school gommittees till dey do vat you vish, shoost to git rid of you?"

"Guess again sir. I'm no book agent."

"Te tuyvel!—a dentist, breakin' de peeble's chaws at a dollar a schnag?"

"No sir, I am no tooth puller."

"Phrenologist den, feelin' te young folk's heads like so many cabbitch?"

"No, nor a phrenologist."

"Vell den what in der tuyvel can you be?—Shoost tell, unt you shall have te best sassage for supper, unt shtay all night, free gratis, mit out paysn' von cent, unt a chill of viskey to start mit in de mornin'."

"I am an humble disciple of Faust—a professor of the art preservative of all arts—a typographer at your service."

"Vatch dat?"

"A printer, sir; a man that prints both books and newspapers."

"A mon what prints newspapers! Oh yaw, yaw, dat ish it—a man vat prints newspapers! Yaw, yaw. I vish I may be shot if I didn't tink you vash a poor tuyvel of a dishtrict schoolmaster, who vorks for noting, unt boards arount no vhare. I thought you vash him.—Valk in, valk in, Mishter Printerman!"

ILLUSTRATION OF FINE ART APPRECIATION.

Two very splendidly attired ladies recently made a condescending visit to the studio of one of our distinguished landscapists, and asked the privilege of looking at his pictures. The artist was but too happy to comply with their request and placed before them a brilliant sunset which he had just finished. His visitors were lavish of those charming epithets which ladies bestow so liberally upon objects of their admiration.—"Oh, isn't it lovely! How sweet! How natural!" etc. And then, after gazing at the glowing canvass for a few moments in rapt silence, the lady who had been loudest in expressing her admiration, said with a naivete which must have penetrated to the core of the painter's heart:

"Pray, Mr. G———, is it a moonlight?"

The artist meekly replied that it was intended for a "sunset."

"Oh, indeed," replied the lady. "Pray, Mr. G———, which do you think the most difficult to do, pictures in oils or in worsted?"

"Really," replied the astonished painter, "I am unable to say, for I have never done anything in worsted."

"Ah!" said the lady, "I find it so difficult in working little dogs, to put in the eyes!"

This reminds us of an anecdote the lamented Henry Inman used to relate. He was sitting in his studio, then in Murray Street, near Broadway, one morning, when a jaunty looking young man and woman entered, and wanted to "see the picture he had painted of S'phiar G——, in B—— Street." It was unfinished, but was readily shown to them by the always obliging artist.

"O, ain't that good! ain't that good! particularly the comb! That's tS'phiar's comb for all the world! I should have known it anywhere!"

The appreciative young lady's companion admitted that it was good; and added flatteringly to the artist:

"After all, paintin' is a regular trade, isn't it?"

He told his companion, however, that "the best way to look at a picture, if you wanted to 'throw it off,' is so," and he stooped down and looked up at it through his legs! Somebody had probably told him that distance was sometimes given to a landscape by that process. Difference of costume rendered his improved lens unavailable to his companion.

JIM AND HIS BRIDE.

The Indianapolis State Sentinel relates the following:

"A happy, unsophisticated couple from the rural districts got married on Tuesday last and posted off to Indianapolis to enjoy the first few days in seeing the sights at the State Fair.—They first stopped at the American House, where Rinkie, after puzzling his brain to the utmost, was unable to give them a room, and they were obliged to be separated. On Wednesday night they tried another hotel, with no better success. The rooms were all crowded, and men had to be huddled together in one room, some on the floor, and packed up any way, while ladies were served the same in other rooms appropriated to their use. On Thursday, the unhappy couple, in despair and disgusted with crowded hotels, searched for and found a private boarding house. The landlady sympathized with them and promised if possible that they should have a room. But on Thursday a perfect avalanche of people came upon the town, the boarding-houses and private houses as well as the hotels had to make every shift to stow away as many as possible at night.—Our unfortunate newly-wedded pair heard with dismay after tea, that they would have to be separated again that night. The groom looked his disappointment, but the bride could not control her feelings and blubbered out as she stamped her foot on the floor—"I've got my head set on it, and I won't be separated from Jim any more." The boarders snorted, and offered to sleep in the street, or any way, but the landlady would not allow it, and Jim had to take a berth on the carpet, away from his weeping bride for the third night. Never bring your bride to a Fair."

☞A Democrat of the Grand River Valley, not often seen in church, recently attended a Methodist prayer meeting. We shall call him Squiggle by way of concealment. In a short time his countenance lost its usual oily jolly look, and he became oblivious of the solemnities going on around him, and was plunged in a profound reverie over the recent defeat of his party in Maine, which he had been discussing that morning. As he reflected, his face naturally elongated, and his jaw dropped. Noticing his serious and solemn look, and not remembering ever to have seen him before, one of the brethren took him to be a stranger of a religious turn of mind, and leaned over his bench and remarked:

"Biother, these are refreshing seasons."

Squiggle gazed vacantly at the speaker and groaned inwardly. The brother paused:

"It is good to be here."

Squiggle, still absorbed in reverie, groaned again.

"Brother, do you often think of your future state?"

At the word "state" the eyes of our Democratic friend lost their dreamy look, and his jaw clashed into place like a rat trap.

"State!" he exclaimed, bringing down his clenched fist on the back of his questioner's bench, with an emphasis that startled the worthy brother greatly. "H—ll! its gone Black Republican by 15,000 majority!"

A STORY FOR BOYS.—It is related of a Persian mother that on giving her son forty pieces of silver as his portion, she made him swear never to tell a lie, and said:

"Go, my son, I consign thee to God, and we shall not meet again until the day of judgment."

The youth went, and the party he travelled with was assaulted by robbers.

One fellow asked the boy what he had, to which he answered:

"Forty dollars are sowed up in my garments."

The robbers laughed, thinking the boy jested.

Another asked the same question, and received the same answer.

At last the chief called him and asked him what he had said. The boy replied:

"I have told two of your people already that I have forty dollars sewed up in my clothes."

The chief ordered the clothes to be ripped open, and the money found.

"And how came you to tell this?"

"Because," replied the boy, "I would not be false to my mother, to whom I promised never to tell a lie."

"Child," said the robber, "art thou so mindful of thy duty to thy mother at thy years, and am I insensible, at my age, of the duty I owe to God? Give me thy hand, that I may swear repentance on it."

There is a moral in this story which goes beyond the direct influence of the mother on the child. The sentiment infused into the breast of a child. The sentiment infused into the breast of a child is again transferred from breast to breast.

THE RASCALS BEATEN.—On the steamer Ocean, from Cleveland on Monday night, there came a number of sharpers, attracted thither by the State Fair. They made several attempts with three-card monte and other swindling games at cards to "rope in" some of the other passengers, but without effect, till one young man was found and badgered till he took out $15. He bet on four kings, but the gambler showed four aces, and the greeny was out just $15. A Cleveland gentleman who had been quietly looking on proceeded to inquire of the young man his name, business, &c. The latter in reply, stated that he was living in the Saginaw country; worked for $10 a month and had been down to Black River, Ohio, to get about $40 due him for labor there. This he had with him when he came on board. The gentleman called Capt. Evans and told the circumstances. "Capt. Dick," in his cool style, "allowed that such business could not be safely transacted on his boat," and ordered a redelivery of the spoils. The rascals gave up $10, but said they certainly ought to be allowed to keep $5. "Not a dollar, not a dollar," said the captain, and they dare not refuse.

MYSTERIES OF COURTSHIP.—"Sally, don't I like you?"

"La, Jim, I reckon so."

"But don't you know it? Don't you think I'd tear the eyes out of anybody that dares to look at you a second?"

"I'spect you would."

"Well, the fact of it is, Sally, I—"

"Oh! now don't Jim, you're too sudden."

"And, Sally, I want to—"

"Don't say anything more now; I will."

"But it must be done immediately, I want you to—"

"Oh hush, don't say any more."

"I want you to get—"

"What! so soon! Oh, no—impossible!—Father and mother would be angry at me."

"How! Be mad for doing me such a favor as to m—"

"Yes! dear me! Oh, what a feeling!"

"But there is some mistake; for all I want to have you do is to mend my trousers!"

Sally could hear no more. She threw up her arms, and screaming histerically fainted away as a dead log.

DOBBS' FIRST "MOTION."—Dobbs, during his first session as a member of the Legislature, was caught without a speech. He was remarkable for his modesty, and his thirst for "cod eye."

One unlucky day the proceedings being rather dull, and Dobbs being rather thirsty, he concluded to go over to the hotel and take a drink. As Dobbs rose to leave the hall, he caught the Speaker's eye. The Speaker supposed he intended to address the house, and announced in a low voice—

"Mr. Dobbs!"

Dobbs started as if he had been shot. The assembled wisdom of the State had their eyes fixed upon him. He pulled out his pocket handkerchief to wipe away the perspiration, and feeling it necessary to say something, he thundered out:

"Second the motion."

"There is no motion before the house," said the Speaker.

"Then I—I"

The silence was breathless.

Dobbs could not think of anything to say. But a bright idea came to him, and he finished with—

"I move to adjourn."

The motion didn't go, but Dobbs did, and nothing more was seen of him that day.

KISSING THE HANDSOMEST GIRLS.—A distinguished candidate for an office of high trust in a certain State, who is "up to a thing or two," and has a keen appreciation of live beauty, when about to set off on an electioneering tour recently, said to his wife, who was to accompany him for prudential reasons:

"My dear, inasmuch as this election is complicated, and the canvass will be close, I am anxious to leave nothing undone that would promote my popularity, and so I have thought it would be a good plan to kiss a number of the handsomest girls in every place where I may be honored with a public reception. Don't you think it would be a good idea?"

"Capital!" exclaimed the devoted wife, "and to make your election a sure thing, while you are kissing the handsomest girls, I will kiss an equal number of the handsomest young men!"

The distinguished candidate, we believe, has not since referred to this pleasing means of popularity.

A LEAP YEAR POPPING.—"A-hem, Ephraim, I heard something about you."

"La, now, Miss Sophrina, you don't say so!"

"Yes, indeed, that I did, and a great many said it too."

"La, now, what was it, Miss Sophrina."

"Oh dear, I can't tell you" (turning away her head.)

"Oh! la, do now."

"Oh! no, I can't."

"Oh! yes, Miss Sophrina."

"La me, Ephraim, you do pester a body so!"

"Well, do please to tell me, Miss Sophrina."

"Well, I heard that——"

"What?" (putting his arm around her waist.)

"Oh! don't squeeze me so!"

"I heard that—that" (turning her blue eyes full upon Ephraim's)—"that—you and I were to be—married!"

HOMELY TRUTHS FOR WIVES.—Although your husband may neglect to give you a new dress, do not seek revenge by giving him a good dressing.

Do not hesitate between the choice of an expensive mantle and your husband's affection; though the former may be dearer to your bosom.

Should your husband bring a friend home to partake of yesterday's beef, do not be churlish, but let a warm smile season the cold repast.

Prefer the country rambles to town lounges; the colors of the rose are brighter than the hues of silk, and the dewdrops outshine the jeweller's gems.

Never deny your husband the pleasure of smoking; the cigar by the fireside is the domestic calumet of peace.

Be careful in brewing the cup which cheers, but not inhebriates; strong tea is better than weak arguments.

The hand which was pledged at the altar is not disgraced in sewing on a button, and remember—as you sow, so shall you reap.

AS THE polite omnibus agent of the Lexington and Louisville Railroad was going through the ladies' car, checking baggage, he asked a very pretty young lady, if she had any baggage she wished taken to the hotel? She replied, "No, sir." The agent then asked her if she desired a "bus?" She instantly gave him a very sweet smile and replied "No, sir, I am not in a bussing humor this evening." The agent dropped his memorandum book, hastily retired to the baggage car, and said he felt unwell.

ANECDOTE OF A PARROT.

Mr. Cornwall Simeon gives the following anecdote in his "Stray Notes on Fishing and Natural History:"

"A parrot belonging to some friends of mine was generally taken out of the room when the family assembled for prayers, for fear lest he might take it into his head to join irreverently in the responses. One evening, however, his presence happened to be unnoticed, and he was forgotten. For some time he maintained a decorous silence, but at length, instead of 'Amen,' out he came with 'Cheers, boys, cheers.' On this the butler was directed to remove him, when the bird, perhaps, thinking that he had committed himself, and had better apologize, called out, 'Sorry I spoke.' The overpowering effect on the congregation may be more easily imagined than described."

A SICKLY girl in Plymouth, N. H., a somnambulist, with a strong propensity to walk off with things and hide them where they could not be found, nor she herself remember, so that at last it was found necessary to lock her in securely at night, made off, a few weeks since, with a valuable watch. Then the family gave her liberty, and watched her movements in hope that the same somnambulism that carried it off would again find it. The other night she started out followed by her brother. She walked places that he dare not follow; but the moonlight helped show her course, and he kept along. Finally she walked up the trunk of an old tree that hung out an angle of forty-five degrees over a brook, stood firmly at the end, while the tree swayed beneath her, and stooping down brought out that watch. Returning to terra firma the brother waked her, took the property, and they hurried home.

☞A justice of the peace in Dubuque, Iowa, whose love of liquor exceeds his knowledge of law, visited a sick friend the other night, upon whose table stood a tumbler of brandy which had been ordered by the doctor. After a little conversation, the Justice recommended a wet bandage across the eyes as a sure cure for his friend's complaint, and after adjusting one carefully, soon left the room. Upon removing the bandage, the sick man found that his brandy had gone, as well as his friend.

NATURAL WEAKNESS.—A "bumptious" traveler, overtaking an old Presbyterian minister, whose nag was much fatigued, quizzed the old gentleman upon his "turn out." A nice horse, yours! very—valuable beast that—but what makes him wag his tail so, doctor?" "Why, as you have asked me, I will tell you. It is for the same reason that your tongue wags so, a sort of natural weakness.

☞Hearing a man complain that political papers of all kinds had become such liars that he did not believe any of them, reminds us of the story of the miller and his three sons. Coming into the mill and finding the grist in the hopper, the old man man cried out: "Tom, have you tolled this grist?" "Yes, sir." "Bill, have you tolled this grist?" "Yes, sir."—"Dick, have you tolled this grist?" "Yes, sir." "You are a pack of lying scoundrels," says the old man. "I don't believe a word you say—I'll toll it myself!"

☞"Wife, bring me some cold beef," said a shiftless husband, when for the first time in his life, he discovered that he was more hungry than thirsty.

"There is no beef in the house," was the mild reply.

"Fetch me some pork, then."

"No pork, either."

"Well, then, let me have some potatoes."

"Not a potatoe left."

"Thunder and lightning! get some bread, then."

"The bread is all gone, too."

"Well, then, give me a knife and fork, and let me go through the motions!"

☞Bob Cones, a newly-elected sheriff, was told by the judge to open court. Bob went to the door and shouted.

"I call court—I call court!"

"Call W. H. Jones and A. P. Moore," said the judge.

"W. H. Jones and A. P. Moore—W. H. Jones and A. P. Moore!" yelled Bob.

"One at a time, Mr. Sheriff."

"One at a time—one at a time!"

"Now you've fixed it."

"Needn't come; we've fixed!" is screamed the determined sheriff.

There was no court that day.

THE following is a very significant epistle to be presented to the present degenerate age, which, if answered correctly, would be found to contain more truth than poetry.

Is there a heart that never sighed?
Is there a tongue that never lied?
Is there an eye that never blinked?
Is there a man that never drinked?
Is there a woman that never fainted?
Is there a woman that never painted?
If so, then heart, tongue and eye
Must tell a most confounded lie.

☞"There won't be a darned thing this summer but politicks," said Jonathan, who was discussing business matters at the depot with a friend. I tell you that I can't meet anybody but what they're putting inter me bout the Little Giant, the Constitution and Spread Eagle, the Rail-Splitter, and a thundering lot of other names. Consarn it, why the bull-frogs in the pond back of our barn are all on a titter, bellowing out, "Old Abe—Old Abe—Illinois—Illinois—put him through, chug."

☞A lady asked her gardener why the weeds always outgrew and covered up the flowers? "Madam," he answered, "the soil is mother of the weeds, but only step-mother of the flowers."

SALIER BOY.

AS SUNG BY S. S. SANFORD, OF THE OPERA HOUSE.

My love is a Salier Boy, so glorious and so bold,
He's as tall as a flag-staff, only nineteen years old,
For to cruise the wide world he left his own dear,
And my heart is a busting because he is not here.
For his spirit was tremendous, oh, fierce to behold
In a young man bred a butcher boy, only nineteen years old.

His parents they bound him to a carpenter,
But a sea-faring life he did much prefer,
For his spirits was tremendous, and fierce to behold,
In a young man, bred a butcher boy, only nineteen years old.
For his spirits was tremendous, etc.

Oh, my bus-um is tos-sed, like the deep rolling sea,
For fear his affections don't still point to me;
For a sweetheart can be had in every port, so I'm told,
More particularly for a young man, only nineteen years old.
For his spirits was tremendous, etc.

My heart is a breaking with grief and repine,
For fear that fine-formed man will never be mine;
Of all the wealth in the mint here, both silver and gold,
I'd give to my Salier Boy, only nineteen years old.
For his spirits was tremendous, etc.

If that ere young man my husband ne'er can be—
But lay a still corpusses in the bottom of the sea,
The weeds of a widder, so dismal to behold,
I'd wear for my Salier Boy, only nineteen years old.
For his spirits was tremendous, etc.

A TOO COMMUNICATIVE CHILD.—Sonny, do you love me any?

O! don't I though!

What for?

Because you always bring me candy when you come to see Sissy Jane. Give me some more.

And what does she love me for?

O, cause you take her to concerts, and give her so many nice things. She says so long as you are fool enough to bring her shawls and bonnets, she won't sack you no how—now give me some more candy.

☞"Why is the letter D. like a ring?" said a young lady to her accepted. The gentleman, like the generality of his sex in such a situation, was as dull as a hammer. "Because" added the lady, with a modest look at the other end of the room, "because we can't be wed without it."

GOOD FOR KATRINA.—A good old Dutchman and his frow sat up till gaping time, when the latter, after a full stretch, said:

"I vish I vas in Heaven."

Hans also yawned and replied:

"I vish I vas in de shtill house."

Katrina's eyes flew wide open, as she exclaimed, "I pe pound for you; you always wish to be in the best place."

HOW TO KISS.—First, grasp with haste, all round the waist, and hug her tight to thee; and then she'll say, "do go away, won't you let me be." Then, oh, what bliss! but never miss so good a chance as that; then make a dash, as quick as a flash, and—Harriet, hold my hat!

A LITTLE EXTRAVAGANT.—An Albany lady wore a dress at the great ball, given to the Prince of Wales in New York, three flounces of which alone cost a thousand dollars each.—The lace used upon the dress was "only two hundred and fifty dollards a yard."

☞"Is this your only suit, Jerry? it's rather shabby."

"O, no, I've got another."

"Where?"

"In Court."

☞A wag being asked the name of the inventor of butter-stamps, replied that he was probably Cadmus, as he first brought letters into Greece.

☞Avoid those who take pleasure in troubling others. There is danger of getting burnt if you get too near the fire.

☞"The wind's getting 'round,' remarked Bibbs to his friend Buggins, the other day when it changed from east to west. 'Glad of it,' replied Buggins; 'it's been sharp long enough.'

☞"Do you know what the people in Lynchburg do when it rains?" asked a freight boat captain of a farmer.

'No, I do not—do you?'

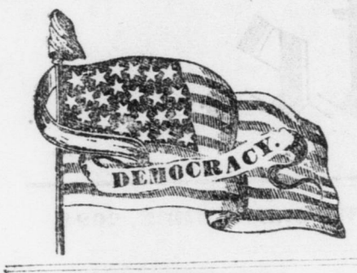
'Why, yes—they let it rain.'

☞"Tommy, my son, run into the store and get some sugar."

"Excuse me, ma: I am somewhat indisposed this morning. Send father, and tell him to bring me a plug of tobacco."

☞Calamity never leaves us where it finds us; it either softens or hardens the heart of its victim.

BEDFORD GAZETTE.



—BEDFORD, Pa.—

FRIDAY.....NOV. 23, 1860.

B. F. Meyers, Editor and Proprietor

THE SACRAMENT

Of the Lord's Supper, (D. V.) will be administered in the Presbyterian Church of this place, on next Sabbath. The Pastor expects the assistance of Rev. W. B. Craig, of Bloomfield, Pa.

The Rock on which Republicanism must split.

It is the hope of some people who cannot arrive at the conclusion that Mr. Lincoln really intends to carry out his doctrine or that of his platform in regard to the question of slavery, that he will pursue a moderate and conservative course. It is very likely that Mr. Lincoln will be compelled to abandon his platform and repudiate his anti-slavery views, and this is the rock on which Black Republicanism is bound to split. Many of Mr. Lincoln's supporters believed him to be conservative, for some of the demagogues who advocated his election, put his claims upon the ground of conservatism. This class will demand of him the surrender of the ultraism of the Chicago Platform and of his Springfield and Peoria speeches. If he does not do this, he is shorn of at least one third of the strength he had when elected. If he does, he will be ostracised and hunted down by the ultra wing of his party, who compose a large majority of his supporters. He stands, therefore, upon Scylla, and no matter which way he leaps, plunges into the dark and whelming Charybdis.

The following from the Pittsburg Dispatch, a Lincoln paper, will serve to show what "Republicans" expect of their President:

Throw that tub of Personal Liberty Bills to this insatiable whale, the arrogant Slave Power, and if it dares the madness of actual secession, will not appease, but stimulate to greater arrogance, and the whole work must be done over again. The same trouble would follow if Mr. Lincoln, (we do not fear it) should attempt to appease that hungry Power by any milk and water conservatism of Administration. He would sink irretrievably; the South would be more unreasonable than ever; and the North must fight another battle, against still greater odds, or be for ever dragooned by the Overseers.

And what a mean, cowardly, cruel desertion would it be of the brave Republicans of the Slave States, who have nobly stood in the front of the fierce fight against the Terrorism of that Power in those States—where it is only possible to speak or vote at great personal sacrifice and risk.

Figures will not lie!

The following appeared in that mendacious sheet edited by would-be Attorney General Fr. Jordan, the Bedford Abolition organ, of last week:

At the October election, we were beaten in Bedford County 97 votes. We have for President a majority of 281 over the Reading electoral ticket, and 181 over Foster, and now Lincoln has from 60,000 to 100,000 majority in the State. Pretty good, considering that the voters from New England, New Jersey and New York were "needed" at home "on the 6th of November. Try again, our ex-Know-Nothing friend. Maybe you can give as good an excuse for the November thrashing your new love party has received. Perhaps this time they were imported from the South!

Now, as we have said before, the Lincolnites were successful in this county, as elsewhere, only because the Democrats did not turn out and suffered the election to go by default. If half a fight had been made against Lincoln, the black banner of republicanism would have been humbled to the dust.---But it will not do for Mr. Jordan to attempt to exaggerate the victory of his party. In the above quoted article he says that Lincoln has a majority, in this county of "181 over Foster." This is a flat and positive falsehood. Foster had 2561 votes, whilst Lincoln had but 2505, leaving a majority for Foster over Lincoln of 55. We call upon Mr. Jordan to correct his false statement. Will he do it?

Frightened and Backing Down!

The Black Republicans at their meeting on Tuesday night last, assumed a very conservative tone indeed. Forgetting that their President elect avowed himself in favor of "putting slavery in the course of ultimate extinction," they take ground in favor of maintaining the Union. The truth is that they are frightened at the prospect before them and would like to back down from their fanaticism and folly.—But their mode of maintaining the Union, must, ex necessitate, be one of coercion and compulsion. It will not be that of granting the Southern people the equality to which they are entitled under the constitution, but it will be like the argument of John Brown, vi et armis! The end will be that the South cannot be coerced and troublous times must follow.

☞The would-be Attorney General said in his speech in the Court House, on Tuesday night, that the Southern States were arming themselves against the Government, which they had no right to do, and that the Executive ought to interfere and put them down.—Why did not Mr. Jordan ask the Executive to interfere when Massachusetts, New Hampshire and other Northern States took up arms to resist the Goverament in the execution of the Fugitive Slave Law?

NULLIFICATION IN PENNSYLVANIA.

Some nine or ten of the Southern States, since they have fallen under the misrule of the Black Republican party, have passed laws or had judicial decisions nullifying one of the compromises of 1850, the law for the rendition of fugitive slaves. Among these states, and we blush to say it, is our own once conservative but now abolitionized Commonwealth. An act was passed by the Black Republican Legislature of our State, on the 31st day of March last, entitled "An act to consolidate, revise and amend the Penal Laws of this Commonwealth," and in the 95th section thereof it is enacted as follows:

"No Judge of any of the Courts of this Commonwealth, nor any Alderman or Justice of the Peace of said Commonwealth, shall have jurisdiction, or take cognizance of the case of any fugitive from labor from any of the United States, or Territories, under any Act of Congress; nor shall any such Judge, Alderman, or Justice of the Peace of this Commonwealth, issue or grant any certificate or warrant of removal of any such fugitive from labor, under any Act of Congress; and if any Alderman or Justice of the Peace of this Commonwealth, shall take cognizance, or jurisdiction, of the case of any such fugitive, or shall grant or issue any certificate, or warrant of removal, as aforesaid, then, and in either case, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor in office, and shall, on conviction thereof, be sentenced to pay, at the direction of the Court, any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, the one-half to the party prosecuting for the same, and the other half to the use of this Commonwealth.

If any person or persons, claiming any negro or mulatto as a fugitive from servitude or labor, shall, under any pretense of authority whatsoever, violently and tumultuously, seize upon and carry away to any place, or attempt to seize and carry away, in a riotous, violent, tumultuous and unreasonable manner, and so as to disturb or endanger the public peace, any negro or mulatto within this Commonwealth, either with or without the intention of taking such negro or mulatto before any District or Circuit Judge the person or persons so offending against the peace of this Commonwealth, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor; and on conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, and further to be imprisoned in the County Jail, for any period at the discretion of the Court, not exceeding three months."

Now, this law sets at defiance the Fugitive Slave Law which is founded upon the Federal Constitution, and which was adopted by Congress, through the advocacy and earnest recommendation of such patriots as Webster and Clay. The Fugitive Slave Law was conceded to the South as a set-off to the admission of California as a free state. This was a solemn compromise entered into on the part of the North, and from which the North was to derive tenfold more benefit than the South. And yet the treachery and dishonesty of the Black Republicans have placed upon our statute-books a law absolutely cheating the South out of their rights under the Compromise of 1850! Is it any wonder that the Southern people talk of secession, when a party has gained the ascendency in the Government which has already violated the Constitution wherever it has been in power?

The loss of the Locofocos in Cumberland Valley, on the October election, is 44 votes. Suppose they had the same majority they had before, we would still have carried the County by 137 over all. They lost 14 votes in Southampton, and 33 in Juniata, add these together, and we still would have carried the County by 90 over all. We think Bedford County is a pretty safe Lincoln County—Jordan's Inquirer.

It was well enough for your purpose, to stop at Juniata in counting the Democratic absentees. If you had proceeded with the remaining districts, you would probably have discovered that in Bedford borough the Democratic loss was 18, whilst Lincoln gained but two and those two transient voters; that in Bedford tp., the Democratic absentees were 33, whilst Lincoln gained but 7; that in Broad Top the Democratic absentees were 7, whilst Lincoln had 4 votes less than Curtin; that in Colerain, the Democratic absentees were 19, Lincoln receiving 2 votes less than Curtin; that in Hopewell the Democratic absentees numbered 37, whilst Lincoln had but 3 more votes than Curtin; that in Monroe the Democratic absentees were 11, in Napier 10, Lincoln receiving but 2 votes more than Curtin, in East Providence 11; in West Providence 7; in Middle Woodberry 11; in South Woodberry 11. In short, as the footing up shows, there were but 2238 Democratic votes polled in the county for President, whilst Foster had 2561, showing that 323 Democratic votes were unpolled at the Presidential election. This is basing the calculation on the October election, when there were at least 125 Democratic voters not out. We think Bedford county is "a pretty safe" Democratic county, by at least 200 majority when the full vote is polled. Let the Attorney General try again.

☞The Bedford county office-seekers attempted a glorification on Tuesday night over Lincoln's election. The signal for the beginning of ceremonies, was the running up of the flag by one of the applicants for the Post Office. As twilight came on, another applicant for the Post Office was seen to shoulder his baton, and march a half-a-dozen Belsnickles around town, other would-be Postmasters looking on and "grinning horribly a ghastly smile." The bell rang, and a dozen or more applicants for Flour Inspector, Sergeant at Arms at Harrisburg, Transcribing Clerks, etc., etc., sauntered up to the Court House, to hear an applicant for the Attorney Generalship under Curtin, and a candidate for President Judge, abuse those dreadful fellows, the "Locofocos." There was no enthusiasm, but jealousy, green-eyed monster, stared continuously from the face of one prospective Postmaster to that of another. It was truly a melancholy assemblage and looked more like a funeral than a triumphant gathering. Competition for office, Southern thunder, and the effect of Lincoln's election upon the money market, is doing its work among the poor Republicans.

The Presidential Election.

We have the following additional particulars in regard to the result of the recent election:

Virginia is now certain for Bell by 400 or 500 majority.

Maryland has gone for Breckinridge by about 300 majority.

Kentucky gives Bell 12,000 to 15,000 majority. Douglas receives a heavy vote in this state.

Tennessee has gone for Bell by several thousand majority. Douglas received upwards of 11,000 votes in Tennessee.

Missouri is still in doubt, but the latest reports give it to Douglas by about 500 majority over Bell, 40,000 over Breckinridge and 45,000 over Lincoln.

The rest of the Southern States have gone for Breckinridge, with the exception of Georgia which failed to choose electors by the vote of the people. The Legislature will choose the Electors.

Douglas carries New Jersey by 3000 majority.

Despatches from reliable sources give California to Douglas by 3000 majority over Lincoln and 20,000 over Breckinridge. The remainder of the Northern States, Oregon excepted, (which is not heard from) have gone for Lincoln. A comparison of the popular vote of each of the candidates, develops the fact that Lincoln is largely in the minority, and that Douglas, though not receiving as many electoral votes as either Bell or Breckinridge, exceeds them largely in the vote of the people.

Thanksgiving Day.

Editor GAZETTE: Please give notice through your paper that Thanksgiving Day, (Thursday, Nov. 29th) will be observed in the usual manner by the Merchants and business men of Bedford. Business will be suspended on that day. MANY CITIZENS.

Local and Miscellaneous.

....John J. Cessna, Esq., our newly elected Sheriff, will be installed in office this week. A better Democrat or more clever gentleman than Sheriff Cessna, is not to be found any where. We predict for him a very successful administration of the duties of his office. The retiring Sheriff, Mr. FLUKE, goes out of office with the good wishes of the people of the county, having made an excellent officer.

...."Dug! Little Dug!, I say, you're a demagogue," stuttered a drunken individual, who staggered to the front of a crowd which Douglas was addressing. The witty Little Giant retorted, with telling emphasis: "If some one would put a few wisps of straw around you, you'd be a demi-john!"

....Read the article in another column written by J. B. Fluck, Esq., entitled "Opening of the Common Schools." Esq. Fluck is a practical teacher and a gentleman who gives much attention to educational matters.

....PETERSON'S MAGAZINE.—We are in receipt of this popular Lady's Magazine for December. It is a splendid number. "Peterson" has a circulation of 100,000. For 1861, it will contain 1000 pages of double column reading matter; 14 steel plates; 12 colored steel fashion plates; 12 colored patterns in Berlin work, embroidery or crochet, and 800 wood engravings—proportionately more than any other periodical gives. Its stories and novelets are by the best writers. Its fashions are always the latest and prettiest. Price but Two DOLLARS a year, or a dollar less than Magazines of its class. To clubs, it is cheaper still—viz: three copies for $5, or eight for $10. To every person getting up a club, the Publisher will send a magnificent premium. Specimens sent gratis to those wishing to get up clubs. Address, post-paid, CHARLES J. PETERSON, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

...The Editor has just returned from his first trip up "Salt River." The Governor of the Salt River Territory, hearing that we were from the same county from which hailed his former subject, Mr. Jordan, of the Inquirer, came to the conclusion to send us speedily back; "for," remarked he, with a very serious countenance, "my old friend Jordan needs a little watching, now and then, not only for his own but for his country's good, and, therefore, as a well-wisher of the people of Pennsylvania generally and of Bedford county particularly, I deem it my duty to advise you to return at once and keep an eye upon him and all who are of his way of thinking." We shall endeavor to obey the injunction.

...Our friend MAJ. S. H. TATE has been installed for the second term of his office, as Prothonotary of Bedford county. Every body that has had any business to transact in that office, speaks well of Major Tate's discharge of his official duties. In fact, people generally look upon the Major as the model Prothonotary. Long may he wave!

....Mr. John Nelson, of the Poor House Mill has the patent right for this county, of one of the best machines for making buckwheat flour we have ever seen. Our family has been using buckwheat flour made by his process, and we have no hesitation in pronouncing it decidedly superior to any other we have ever used. Give him a call.

....LARGE DEER KILLED.—Our friend John McMullin, of Centreville, in this county, one day last week, killed a "four-pronged" buck, weighing 190 pounds! John is a good shot and deserves his success. Beat it who can.

....Harper's Ferry, the scene of the John Brown invasion, voted at the recent election as follows: Bell, 275, Douglas 278, Breck. 77. This doesn't look much as though the citizens of Harper's Ferry were afraid to trust the Little Giant.

....Among the noteworthy articles on exhibition at our late Fair, was a detached lever watch manufactured by Mr. Daniel Border, of this place. It is an elegant piece of workmanship, and reflects much credit upon Mr. Border as a mechanic. Persons desirous of seeing it can do so by calling at Mr. Border's shop, two doors West of the Bedford Hotel.

....During our absence from home, a communication in reply to the "Card" of Messrs. Everhart, Crisman and Nicodemus, recently published in the Gazette, was handed in for publication. This reply is signed by a number of the most respectable citizens of Rainsburg, and if the "Card" referred to had in any manner reflected upon these gentlemen, we would be bound in justice to them, to give their reply a place in our columns. But as it did not make any reference to any of the citizens of Rainsburg and as we feel decidedly disinclined to make our paper the medium of a controversy between the friends and opponents of Prof. Osborne, we shall respectfully decline its publication.

....There is rather a slim attendance at Court. The Hemming kidnapping case has been continued to next term the defendant entering into security in the sum of $1000 for his appearance.

OPENING OF THE COMMON SCHOOLS.

BY J. B. FLUCK.

Now that the great political deluge, which for the last six months, has inundated the columns of news papers of political proclivities, has subsided, and that the great political battle of 1860, has been fought, and it remains only to give the statistics of the victorious, wounded, dead and dying, which may be done by a tabular arrangement, in a comparatively small space, we hope to find, through the local press, an awakening interest in education and school matters; so that our home paper may continue to be, as it ever has been, a welcome guest, and an interesting companion in the family circle.

We anxiously hope that our Educational men—Superintendent, Teachers, Directors, friends of children—will make an arrangement with our Editors, to have, for home or school reading, at least one interesting article per week, inserted in our county papers for the benefit of Teachers, Parents, and Children.

Who will be the first to contribute a heart-cheering poem for the school-boys, that will make them hail with exquisite delight, the sound of the merry school-bell, as it "throws its welcome on the air," and thus adds wings to their feet as they hasten to school to greet the Teacher, who stands ready to welcome them with a smile?

Who will be our first lady friend, (or the gentleman if the lady should fail,) to exhilarate the dull and dreaded task, impending over the little girls' entering school, by contributing some sweet words of encouragement, entwined with assurance of a speedy reward for industry and constancy in ascending the hill of science, thus rendered easy and pleasant?

We ask the attention of our readers to the following article from "CLARK'S SCHOOL VISITOR," (by the way an excellent little paper for children,) under the caption of SUPPORT YOUR HOME PAPER.

"The world is flooded with papers—all sorts of papers—secular papers, religious papers; papers for the farmer, the mechanic, the teacher, the child; daily, weekly, monthly papers; papers pictorial and papers congressional; funny papers and stupid papers; Posts, Tribunes, Forums—Messengers, Advocates, Heralds—Banners, Flags, Trumpets—Day-Books, Journals, Ledgers—Worlds, Suns, Stars—Dispatches, Expresses, Courriers,—Chronicles, Examiners, Reporters, and a thousand other famous papers, all of which are scattered broad-cast throughout the land; but one of the best papers for a family of young persons, and the one deserving the first and promptest patronage from the head of the household, is the indispensable local or county paper—the home paper.

We would earnestly recommend farmers and mechanics, teachers, lawyers, doctors, preachers, by all means, encourage first your own paper, published in your county-town and containing all the local news of your neighborhood. It is a grand mistake for persons in the country or at a remote distance from the great cities, to send their money hundreds of miles away in exchange either for a stale daily, or a weekly made up of dead dailies, and expect thus to find profitable and entertaining reading for a family!

Be neighborly. Subscribe and pay your dollar or two, as the price may be, for your home paper. If it happens to be a little dull at times, breathe new life into it by writing something lively for its columns, or sending a few new subscribers and as many dollars to the Editor. Sure cure for dullness! Encourage home enterprise and home industry. Encourage home talent by teaching your children to contribute articles, short, pointed, useful, suggestive, to the juvenile department of your home paper.

Friends, think of this, and resolve to assist your neighbor, the publisher of the paper established and continued to promote your interest and your happiness. Give your nearest paper a hearty welcome these winter evenings; and should you have an extra quarter or half dollar left for reading money, give it to Johnnie or Mary, and let it be expended in securing the regular visits of some live youth's paper. Such investments will pay a thousand fold."

BEDFORD BIBLE SOCIETY.

Editor "Gazette:"

Dear Sir:—

As the Committees of Ladies of the Bedford Bible Society, are about to make their annual call among our community, will you prepare their way, and aid the cause, by publishing the following extract from the circular of the Penn'a. Bible Society?

"Our friends are occasionally called for in prosecuting the work of supply in very feeble destitute portions of the State. Then, we appropriate the remainder to the American Bible Society, to be expended in supplying the destitute in foreign countries. It is impossible for us to hear of the wonderful changes now taking place in Southern Europe, without an anxious desire that the word of God may enter as a saving principle into those nations, upon whom the light of liberty is now dawning.

"How great their dangers from a sudden release from the ancient forms of faith and government, we cannot judge—but we can help them to that precious word, the revealed will of God, to which we are indebted for our own personal comforts and hopes, as well as for our national prosperity."

It is this noble and comprehensive enterprise, which while it carries to every door of our town and county, the bread of life, casts it also broad upon the waters to be carried to every shore. Who would not have some share, however slight, in such a cause?

O. E. SHANNON, Sec'y. JOHN LYON, Pres't.

THE SECESSION MOVEMENT.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 16.—The demonstration of welcome last evening to the members of the Legislature returning from the Capital, were very enthusiastic. A large Palmetto tree was planted in front of the Institute Hall, where the meeting was held, and facing the speakers' stand was a large transparency, "Well done, good and faithful servants."

Mr. Macbeth, the President, made a fine speech.

R. N. Gordon also addressed the delegates, and the response of Mr. Porter, the President of the Senate, called forth prolonged applause.

Several other speakers made telling addresses, and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed.

There were abundant displays of fireworks, and many houses were illuminated. During the day cannons were fired as flags were raised with Colonial and State mottoes inscribed upon them.

SECESSION MEETING AT MOBILE.

MOBILE, Ala., Nov. 16—At the meeting of citizens irrespective of party, held here to day, resolutions were unanimously adopted favoring a secession from the Union.

A resolution to await the action of the other States was voted down and withdrawn.

MOBILE, Nov. 17.—The Register declares for the secession of Alabama, and says that the large sectional vote at the North and the South proves that a common government is impossible. All efforts to save the Union will be fruitless, and this journal appeals to the conservative men to take the movement in their own hands, as the only means of avoiding the worst consequences of an inevitable revolution.

GEORGIA.

AUGUSTA, Nov. 18.—The general impression is that Senator Toombs has not yet resigned but that he will resign on the 3d of March, unless Georgia secedes.

The bill appropriating a million of dollars to arm and equip Georgia, is a complete law.

FLORIDA.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 17.—The Legislature of Florida at the last session, passed a resolution promising decided action in case of the election of a Republican President, requiring the Governor to convene the Legislature. The Jacksonville Standard and other papers urge the Governor to a compliance with the resolution.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 17.—The people inaugurated the revolution at 11 o'clock this morning. Our leading importing merchants have erected a mammoth pole near the Charleston Hotel, and the hoisting of the State flag on it has been duly celebrated. The pole was made of Carolina pine, one hundred feet high, and surmounted by the cap of liberty. The neighboring house tops were crowded with people. Thousands of the highest respectability thronged the balconies and windows, waving their handkerchiefs. Impromtu stands were erected, and the principal merchants took seats. The flag was then hoisted amid the tremendous cheering of the populace and the greatest excitement ever known here.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 17.—Political affairs are quiet. There is such an unanimity among South Carolinians in favor of secession that it seems to be a fixed and recognized fact.

Messrs. Perry, Orr, and other Union men in former times, now either co-operate with, or do not oppose the movement.

Meetings are being held in all the districts and parishes of South Carolina in favor of secession.

A QUESTION.

If the main purpose of the Republican party was not aggression on the South, why were not Bell and Everett adopted by the Chicago Convention? Their nomination certainly would have sufficed for all North and South opposed to Democracy. It was a nomination which, if successful, would have carried apprehension of disaster nowhere.

The only difference between it and Lincoln is that the Bell-Everett ticket was composed of men not pledged to put slavery in a process of extinction, while Lincoln did stand thus pledged, and this difference made Lincoln acceptable to Giddings and all of that stripe, as being the man for their purpose, while Bell and Everett were not suited to their anti-slavery purpose.

Let every one put the question closely to himself, and he will say that Lincoln's pledged hostility to Southern institutions was the sole cause of his being preferred.---Pennsylvanian.

A Good Chance for a Wide-Awake.

As many of these gentry will be disappointed in their expectations for office, we subjoin an advertisement offering to some one of them a situation. In the "Massachusetts school" such situations do not go a-begging:

WANTED—BY A RESPECTABLE colored family, a white boy, 14 or 16 years of age, to wait on the table and make himself generally useful about the house.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—Never Despair—something that never fails.—"Fever and Ague."—To the sick it is of little consequence how they are cured, whether from a rational view of the disease or by the rules defined for the guidance of the profession, so long as the cure is certain and expeditious. To a suffering man the question on the relative merits of quinine or calomel is uninteresting. The faculty may wrangle and discuss their various theories, but Dr. Holloway's treatment dispels doubt ere the disciples of Esculapius have finished the first stage. In the West, Holloway's Pills are the only remedies which effect a speedy and radical cure without danger of relapse. Read the advertisement elsewhere.

THE ELECTION IN VIRGINIA

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—The Alexandria Gazette publishes the returns from all the counties except Logan and Webster. Bell has 446 majority over Breckinridge.

IS THE WORLD UNGRATEFUL?

THE FRIENDS OF LAMARTINE THINK IT IS.

We are utterly disgusted with the self-laudation which some of our second class great men are in the hoait of practicing; and we mean to expose it, even though the task is a distasteful one. The vice is peculiarly, though not exclusively, French; and is found among the second class of great men, but never among the first who are the real benefactors of the world.

Thomas Holloway, one of the latter, whose name is idolized in all parts of the world, and to whom it is not too much to say that millions of all creeds and complexions are indebted for the preservation of their lives,—Thomas Holloway, we say, is never heard appealing either to the gratitude or generosity of those who have derived the greatest of all earthly blessings from his skill; he contents himself with the assurance that his work has been done, and that the price has been paid.

We have been led into these reflections by an appeal which is now put forward on behalf of a second class French poet. Monsieur Alphonse Lamartine, it seems, though munificently paid for the productions of his pen, neglected to lay up any sufficient store for the support of his declining days: and now his voice is raised against "the ingratitude of the human race." The argument which he produces to strengthen his claim, is one which should rather make him blush for his extravagance: he says that millions of his productions have been sold, and that therefore the world is in his debt! But why? Was he not paid the price he asked for every copy? Or does he think that it sounds like common prose honesty to ask to be paid twice over.

He will answer, doubtless, that his poems gave a pleasure the value of which their price could not approximate. Let us admit this rule, and apply it to another case to test its merits. Health we all know, is the chief of earthly blessings; and a boon which must be purchased, let the cost be what it may; a blessing, to be blessed with which the sinking monarch would resign his kingdom. Suppose then, that Holloway, instead of fixing such a price on his remedies as would afford him (when myriads were his customers) a fair and honorable profit, had apportioned the price of his pills and ointment to the exigencies of each case and the ability of the sufferer to pay for his physical salvation! Why, in such a case, the great physician would long ago have owned all Europe in fee simple, and three-fourths of the remainder of the world—for the royalties and nobilities of Europe were among his earliest patients, but are still too proud to acknowledge that they owe their lives to the same simple but all sufficing remedies which have been brought, by Holloway's philanthrophy, within reach of the meanest of their serfs.—"Les Belle's Lettres."

PREMIUMS FOR SUBCRIBERS!

THE METHODIST,

THE NEW RELIGIOUS WEEKLY, WAS COMMENCED IN JULY LAST, AND IS PUBLISHED ON

SATURDAY OF EACH WEEK,

AT NO. 7, BEEKMAN ST., N. Y.

EDITED BY THE REV. GEORGE R. CROOKS, D. D., Assisted by the Rev. JNO. McCLINTOCK, D. D.,

At present residing in Paris, as CORRESPONDING EDITOR; and by numerous contributors well known as writers for the people. Giving due prominence to all matters of interest pertaining to the Church whose name it bears, and sustaining its institutions against disorganizers within its bosom and assailants from without, it yet, in a spirit of brtherhood, conveys to its eaders full details of passing events in all the sister churches, and in the world at large, maintaining at the same time a high literary tone, and a dignified abstinence from all unnecessary controversy.

IT IS PRINTED IN IMPERIAL QUARTO FORM, ON THE BEST PAPER, AND IN THE BEST TYPOGRAPHICAL STYLE;

And is embellished from time to time by

Portraits of Eminent Men,

IN THE MINISTRY AND LAITY,

And is thus constituted, editorially and mechanically,

A RELIGIOUS FAMILY NEWSPAPER OF THE FIRST CLASS.

TERMS, $2 00 PER YEAR.

Subscribers paying for the Year to commence 1st January next, will receive the Paper Gratuitously up to that date.

PREMIUMS FOR SUBSCRIBERS.

Although "The Methodist" has met with almost unprecedented success, yet, in order to place it within the reach of every Methodist Family, we have been induced to offer a List of Premiums to any who wish to procure subscribers. These Premiums are offered severally for two subscribers, and up to fifty subscribers and embrace

Carhart, Needham, & Co.'s Melodeons,
Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machines,
Wilcox & Gibbs' Sewing Machines,
French's Conical Washing Machines,
A number of desirable books, such as
Harper's Illuminated Bible,
Washington Irving's Works,
Agricultural Books,
Steven's Hist. of Methodism,
Bang's Hist of the M. E. Church,
And numerous other Books of Permanent Interest and value, together with a Great Variety of Books suitable to the

Sabbath School Library,

Affording to any who wish to present their Pastor with a perpetually useful household convenience, or who wish to procure one for their own comfort, or who wish to furnish one as a means of livelihood to some friend, or to any Sunday School Pupil or Teacher who desires to enrich the S. S. Library, a ready means of doing so by the expenditure only, of a

LITTLE EXERTION, AND THE OCCUPATION OF A LITTLE SPARE TIME.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

Are you sick, feeble, and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged, and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering, and disease. While in this condition, oppressed by the derangements, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly, and many of them surely, cured by the same means. None who know the virtues of these Pills, will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.

Statements from leading physicians in some of the principal cities, and from other well known public persons.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

As a Family Physic.

From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, New Orleans.

Your Pills are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

DEAR BRO. AYER: I cannot answer you what complaints I have cured with your Pills better than to say all that we ever treat with a purgative medicine. I place great dependence on an effectual cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and believing as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE, Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders—Liver Complaints.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, Washington, D. C., 7th Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D., Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Relax, Worms.

From Dr. J. G. Green, of Chicago.

Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses for bilious dysentery and diarrhœa. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Constipation, Costiveness, Suppression, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, Fits, etc.

From Dr. J. P. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada.

Too much cannot be said of your Pills for the cure of costiveness. If others of our fraternity have found them as efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaiming it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the progenitor of others that are worse. I believe costiveness to originate in the liver, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease.

From Mrs. E. Stuart, Physician and Midwife, Boston.

I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent promoters of the natural operation when wholly or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Methodist Epis. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, Savannah, Ga., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them, I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, Baton Rouge, La., 5 Dec. 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured, by your Pills, of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years. VINCENT SLIDELL.

☞ Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

Price, 25 cents per Box, or 5 Boxes for $1.

☞ Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.

B. F. Harry, Bedford; Barndollar & Son, Bloody Run; G. B. Amick, St. Clairsville; J. Breneman, Woodberry; Geo. Gardill, West End; J. E. Colvin, Schellsburg; and by dealers generally.

MARK THESE FACTS!

THE TESTIMONY OF THE WHOLE WORLD

Holloway's Ointment.

Bad Legs, Bad Breasts, Sores and Ulcers.

All description of sores are remediable by the proper and diligent use of this inestimable preparation. To attempt to cure bad legs by plastering the edges of the wound together is a folly; for should the skin unite, a boggy diseased condition remains underneath to break out with tenfold fury in a few days. The only rational and successful treatment, as indicated by nature, is to reduce the inflammation in and about the wound, and to soothe the neighboring parts by rubbing in plenty of the Ointment, as salt is forced into meat.

Diphtheria, Ulcerated Sore Throat, and Scarlet and other Fevers.

Any of the above diseases may be cured by well rubbing the Ointment three times a day into the chest, throat and neck of the patient; it will soon penetrate, and give immediate relief. Medicine taken by the mouth must operate upon the whole system ere its influence can be felt in any local part whereas the Ointment will do its work at once.—Whoever tries the ungeunt in the above manner, for the diseases named, or any similar disorders affecting the chest and throat, will find themselves relieved as by a charm.

Piles, Fistulas, Strictures.

The above class of complaints will be removed by nightly fomenting the parts with warm water, and then most effectually rubbing in the Ointment. Persons suffering from these direful complaints lose not a moment in arresting their progress. It should be understood that it is not sufficient merely to smear the Ointment on the affected parts, but it must be well rubbed in for some considerable time two or three times a day, that it may be taken into the system, whence it will remove any hidden sore or wound as effectually as though palpable to the eye. There again bread and water poultices, after the rubbing in of the Ointment, will do great service. This is the only sure treatment for females, cases of cancer in the stomach, or where there may be a general bearing down.

Indiscretions of Youth;—Sores and Ulcers.

Blotches, as also swellings, can, with certainty be radically cured if the Ointment be used freely and the Pills be taken night and morning as recommended in the printed instructions. When treated in any other way they only dry up in one place to break out in another; whereas this Ointment will remove the humour from the system, and leave the patient a vigorous and healthy being. It will require time with the use of the Pills to ensure a lasting cure.

Dropsical Swellings, Paralysis and Stiff Joints.

Although the above complaints differ widely in their origin and nature, yet they all require local treatment. Many of the worst cases, of such diseases, will yield in comparatively short space of time, when this Ointment is diligently rubbed into the parts affected, even after every other means have failed. In all serious maladies the Pills should be taken according to the printed directions accompanying each box.

Both the Ointments and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Bad Legs,	Fistulas,
Bad Breasts,	Gout,
Burns,	Glandular Swellings,
Bunions,	Lumbago,
Bites of Moschetoes and Sand-Flies,	Rheumatism,
Coco-bay,	Scalds,
Chiego-foot,	Sore Nipples,
Chilblains,	Sore-throats,
Chapped Hands,	Skin Diseases,
Corns (Soft)	Scurvy,
Cancers,	Sore-heads
Contracted and Stiff Joints,	Tumors,
Elephantiasis,	Ulcers,
	Wounds,
	Yaws.

☞ CAUTION!—None genuine unless the words "HOLLOWAY, NEW YORK AND LONDON," are discernible as a Water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

Sold at the Manufactory of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicine, throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cts and $1 each.

☞ There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.

E. J. OSBORNE, A. B.
J. W. DICKERSON, } Principals.

This institution will commence its first session with an able and experienced corps of instructors on Monday, Nov. 5th, 1860. No expense has been spared in making it thorough and complete in every department.

The school building is constructed and furnished upon the most approved modern plans, and is one of the best in the State. It contains a hall capable of seating 500 adults, with office, music rooms, sufficient for a school of 300 pupils.

The school is located in a region of country unexcelled for its beauty and healthfulness, and is surrounded by a moral and industrious community.

The distance to Cove Station, Huntingdon and Broad Top R. R. is six miles; to Hollidaysburg Station, Pa. R. R. 12 miles, with daily stages from the latter and tri-weekly from the former; thus making it easy of access from all parts of the country. The objects of the school are:—

1st. The Professional Training of Teachers.

2nd. The thorough Education of young ladies and gentlemen in the English and Ornamental Branches.

3d. The preparation of Students for College.

The teaching Class will meet daily for lectures on the Theory and Practice of Teaching, recitation from a standard work on the subject, or discussion of Methods of Teaching by the class.

Students who desire to do so may prepare to enter the higher classes in college.

Ladies will have a separate boarding house and will be under the immediate supervision of an experienced Preceptress.

Instruction given in all the branches taught in the best Academies and Seminaries.

Whole expense, (exclusive of Ornamental branches,) for boarding, tuition, furnished rooms, room rent, and fuel, $118.00 a year.

BEDFORD COUNTY MAP.

I Will make a directory map of Bedford County from actual surveys, if a sufficient number of subscribers can be raised to justify me in the enterprise.

The map will be large and well finished and will show the location of all the public roads streams, boundary lines, towns, villages, Hotels, Churches, School Houses, Post Offices, stores, grist mills, saw mills &c., &c., and will contain the names of all the property holders, and show the busines that almost each one is engaged in. I will put on the same sheet maps of all the towns and large villages, also tables and statistics of the County and (if taken in time) the census of 1860. Pains will be taken to make it as reliable as any Map in the State.

MANHOOD.
HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED.

Just Published, in a sealed Envelope,

On the Nature, Treatment and Radical Cure of Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Weakness, Sexual Debility, Nervousness and Involuntary Emissions, Impotency and Mental and Physical Incapacity.

BY ROB. J. CULVERWELL, M. D.,

The important fact that the awful consequences of self-abuse may be effectually removed without internal medicines or the dangerous applications of caustics, instruments, medicated bougies, and other empirical devices, is here clearly demonstrated, and the entirely new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the celebrated author fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to cure himself perfectly, and at the least possible cost, thereby avoiding all the advertised nostrums of the day. This Lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.

Sent under seal to any address, post paid, on the receipt of two postage stamps, by addressing Dr. CH. J. C. KLINE, M. D., 480 first Avenue, New York Post Box 4586.

BEDFORD CLASSICAL INSTITUTE

REV. JOHN LYON, T. LITTLETON LYON, A. M., } PRINCIPALS.

THE Summer session of this institution will open on Friday, the 4th day of May 1860.

It is the design of the Principals, to make this Academy, in all respects, a first class Institution, for the thorough instruction of youth of both sexes, and to prepare them for any profession or position in life.

The high moral and scientific tone of the school is well known to this community, and a strict discipline will be enforced.

A few boys, (the number is limited to ten,) will be received into the family of the Principals, as boarders.

The beauty of the scenery and the salubrity of the climate render Bedford a most desirable location for such a school.

Persons from abroad, visiting at the Springs, can be near their children during the summer.

It is desirable that pupils should enter at the commencement of the session, and no pupil will be received for less than one quarter.

TERMS. { $200 per year, including boarding, washing, fuel, light, and Tuition in all the branches.

Terms for day scholars:

Per Quarter. { $6.—English Branches. $7.50, Classical do &c.
